Dear Mrs. Moore:

We have been referring all mail for the Oswald family to the Secret Service office here in Dallas. The address is 505 North Ervey Street.

I am sure that agency will be glad to handle checks payable to the Oswald family.

Very truly yours,

J. E. Curry
Chief of Police

Gentlemen:

Enclosed is an article which appeared in our Journal and Sentinel. Since we are Southern Baptist and since Southern Baptist Convention has asked its members to contribute to a fund for Mrs. Marie Oswald - I mean Mrs. Lee Harvey Oswald - we would like to know to whom we can send the money and to whom a check should be made payable. We do not feel that she should be held responsible for her husband's crime; so, though the amount will be small, we'd like to have a part.

Sincerely,

Margaret Moore

Dear Sir.

I am writing a letter to you because of the previous happenings involving me in Dallas.

I am supposed to write these letters of mine, to President Kennedy exactly a year ago when I looked into politics here.
I want to let Dallas know of the ending of the Office
which I still am in today.

I drafted my letter because I thought I was too small to write to him, but secondly I thought he would think I was up to the standard. I fear so I told my wife and daughter that I really like to write to President Kennedy and now I drafted my letter to him regarding the case which I am involving.

In the fall of 1963, early in November, just two weeks before the assassination, I told a friend of mine that I was going to write him a very long letter about the case which I am involving. I also told him that I was going to the law office.

For here to recall the Office and the case, but to send
of the letter to him. I answered.

I am writing this letter for his telegraphic letter and we could be sure to find him. I am sure that he will find the letter. I am sure that he will find the letter.
I am sure that he will find the letter. I am sure that he will find the letter. I am sure that he will find the letter.

I am sure that he will find the letter. I am sure that he will find the letter. I am sure that he will find the letter.
I am sure that he will find the letter. I am sure that he will find the letter. I am sure that he will find the letter.

I am sure that he will find the letter. I am sure that he will find the letter. I am sure that he will find the letter.
I am sure that he will find the letter. I am sure that he will find the letter. I am sure that he will find the letter.
I am sure that he will find the letter. I am sure that he will find the letter. I am sure that he will find the letter.

I am sure that he will find the letter. I am sure that he will find the letter. I am sure that he will find the letter.

... The letter is written to the Dallas Police Department.
